

The dwelling is already existed, vacant and would be used as a group home.

It has four bedrooms; three bedrooms would be occupied by an NDIS participants or people both physically and mentally disabled. and the fourth one would be for the staff at least two. on a 24/7 shift.

New ramps would be installed at the front entrance and some shower modifications would be done to ensure more space for any extra tools.

Method of transportation would be the company's car.

It would be a permanent group home.

New locks would be installed to ensure the safety of the participants. All off the staff would have the required certificates to operate a group home.